SCHOOL-PARENT COMPACT

This school-parent compact is in effect during the school year 2019-2020.

The Dunbar-Ramer School, and the parents of the students participating in activities, services, and programs funded by Title I, Part A of the Every Student Succeeds Act of 2015 (ESSA) (participating children), agree that this compact outlines how the parents, the entire school staff, and the students will share the responsibility for improved student academic achievement and the means by which the school and parents will build and develop a partnership that will help children achieve the State's high standards.

This school-parent compact is in effect during the -2019-2020 school year.

REQUIRED SCHOOL-PARENT COMPACT PROVISIONS

School Responsibilities

The Dunbar-Ramer School will:

- Provide high-quality curriculum and instruction in a supportive and effective learning environment that enables the participating children to meet the State's student academic achievement standards as follows:
 - Students will receive instruction that meets and/or exceeds state and local standards by aligning all content with the Alabama Course of Study and the Common Core.
 - Students will receive instruction that meets their individual needs.
 - Students will be taught in a safe and caring environment.
- Hold parent-teacher conferences (at least annually in elementary schools) during which this compact will be discussed as it relates to the individual child's achievement. Specifically, those conferences will be held at the conclusion of the first nine weeks thereafter on an as needed basis.
- Provide parents will frequent reports on their child's progress.
 - Specifically, the school will provide progress every three weeks.
- Provide parents reasonable access to staff.

- Specifically, staff will be available for consultation with parents before and after school and on planning periods. Please call the school to schedule an appointment with your child's teacher.
- Provide parents opportunities to volunteer and participate in their child's class, and to observe classroom activities.
 - Specifically, parents are welcome to observe your child's classroom at any time. Please stop by the office and obtain a pass prior to entering your child's classroom.
 - To volunteer, please let your child's teacher know what you are available for, or call the office.

Parent Responsibilities

We, as parents, will support our children's learning in the following ways:

- Monitor attendance
- Make sure homework is complete
- Monitor amount of television children watch
- Participating, as appropriate, in decisions relating to my child's education and communicating with the school by promptly reading all notices from the school district either received by my child or by mail and responding, as appropriate.
- Serving, to the extent possible, on advisory groups, such as Title I Advisory Committees and Parental Involvement Committees.

Student Responsibilities

I, as a student, will share the responsibility to improve my academic achievement and achieve the State's high standards.

Specifically, I will:

- Do my homework each day and ask for help when I need to.
- Read at least 30 minutes every day outside of school time.
- Give my parents or the adult responsible for my welfare all notices and information received by me from my school each day.
